3011 JS Rotterdam
The Netherlands

The Dutch Conference of Sports & Exercise Medicine (DCSEM) is organized by the Dutch Association for Sports Medicine (VSG). DCSEM has become an important meeting in the field of Sports & Exercise Medicine.

The purpose of the conference is to exchange scientific knowledge, present current medical research, discuss clinical practice, and support continuing professional development with clinicians from all over the world.

The scientific program covers a wide range of interests, both on academic and practical levels. It will also include plenary sessions on promoting and protecting the health of the (female) athlete and patient care, giving plenary talks, round table meetings, and meet-the-expert sessions.

The meeting is designed for sports physicians, researchers, sports medicine residents, exercise scientists, physiotherapists and other (healthcare) professionals in sports medicine and others interested in Sports & Exercise Medicine.

Please note that this letter is issued solely to confirm the participants' invitation and/or registration for the conference. It does not represent a commitment by the meeting organizers to provide any financial assistance.

Sincerely,

Harry van der Zaag
Director VSG
